

Story of Eugene Field.

A story that has been written about Field concerns the trick he played on two carloads of Kansas City merchants, who went away one time on an excursion. Each car was to go by a different route, and the cars separated at an early hour in the morning when everybody was asleep, except Eugene Field who was along to write up the trip. Just before the cars parted company he carried all the shoes from one sleeper into the other and carefully exchanged them. Then he took the shoes from the sleeper that had a double supply and carried them into the sleeper where nobody had any shoes. The next morning there was a blue streak two ways across Kansas. Every man in both sleepers was miles and miles away from his own shoes.

"Kodecke is a lazy scamp." "That so?" "Yes; Mrs. Kodecke takes in the washing and he does the rest."—Boston Courier.

"Some mighty good people," said Uncle Eben, "gives er lot ob advice whah day might 'complish more by locatin' dah chicken-coop whah it wou'dn't be so temptatious."—Washington Star.

Jones (after the play)—How did you like the piece? Smith—I don't admire tragedy. Jones—Why, that wasn't tragedy; it was comedy. Smith—Yes, I know it was put on for comedy; but they murdered it.—Pick-me up.

Why Have You

Been stricken with disease while your neighbor escaped, or vice-versa? Both were alike exposed, but in one case the disease germs found lodgement in the impure blood and weakened system; while in the other the blood was kept pure by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the body was in a condition of good health.

Hood's PILLS are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or grip. Sold by all druggists. —107—

W.W. DIMOND'S

High priced articles have been sold here for years and people have complained, because of the high rate of living in Honolulu. We have tried to alter this, we have bought goods direct from the manufacturers and sell them for a half or a quarter off what you have paid before. The public likes the idea and so do we. The profits to us are satisfactory, probably as the other fellow makes, the difference is on the buying—our buying and you get the benefit of it.

You never saw a decent onyx top table in Honolulu that you could buy for under fifteen dollars. We sell them at six fifty and enable a class of people who could not afford to own them before, to put them among their pretty things in the parlor.

It's the same with crockery. Just look at our forty piece decorated tea sets (we can't tell you the price because you would think we were fooling). You can have a little high tea with one of these sets and be as well as your neighbor. There's nothing cheap about them, except the price; the quality is alright and no one will find fault with them. Its having these good quality goods at low prices that presents our objecting to the government turning tradesmen and selling off their stock of glassware and crockery.

We would enjoy your remarks on looking at our stock of lamps. The wrought iron patterns are the prettiest we have ever seen. You know what a rough iron lamp is—never gets old looking and will never be out of style. We furnish the shades, paper ones, that set them off to perfection. The price? Well, too small to mention.

TO HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

This is the Medicine That Makes People Well!

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co.,

Gentlemen:—I was very much run down, had no appetite at all, was very nervous, had no sleep night or day; to sum it all up, I WAS PERFECTLY WRETCHED. But thanks to Paine's Celery Compound I can now eat and sleep and work just as well as I could before I was taken sick. When I commenced taking the Compound I weighed 136 pounds; I now weigh 168 pounds and do all the work for my family of five. I have recommended the Compound to three families already and they are very much pleased with it. I am now taking my fifth bottle, and would RECOMMEND IT TO ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING WITH STOMACH TROUBLE OR NERVOUS TROUBLE.

Mostrose, Pa., Sept. 25, 1894

Yours respectfully,
MRS. AUG. DARROW.
